

LINN COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION MONTHLY MEETING MINUTES
Thursday, October 18, 2007
Cedar Rapids Museum of Art

Dean Einck of the ISBA began the meeting at approximately 12:13 pm. Mr. Einck made remarks about and showed a video on the Raise the Bar Capital Campaign. Mr. Einck then introduced Jim Craig of the ISBA who made additional remarks and made a donor request of $500 per member (payable over 5 years).

President Heffern next introduced herself and asked if any guests were present.

The following guests were introduced: Jason Steffens introduced Kelly Gallagher, a new attorney with Simmons Perrine. A second member introduced Mr. Erdahl, visiting from Monticello.

Membership Chair Sasha Monthei moved for admission of the following attorneys for membership: Mark Fisher (not present) who will be working for Nidey Peterson Erdahl & Tindal and Dawn Gibson of Moyer & Bergman. Motion passed.

Treasurer Todd Anderson distributed a Treasurer's Report and reported that he is receiving some membership payments, but needs more.

Linn Law Club President Caitlin Slessor announced that she put two fliers on each table – one announcing the holiday fund drive/families sponsorship through HACAP and a second reminder card of upcoming events for members.

Bob Hatala introduced the speaker, Joel Greer, ISBA President (and member of Cartwright, Druker & Ryden in Marshalltown). Mr. Greer made general remarks about the ISBA facility and hot topics in Iowa law including e-filing and electronic discovery. Mr. Greer then introduced Harry Shipley of the ISBA who spoke further about the ISBA facility and services that will be available in the new site. He took questions from the audience.

Laura C. Mueller, on President Heffern's request because she had to leave early, closed the meeting.

The next meeting of the LCBA will be Thursday, November 15, 2007 at the Cedar Rapids Museum of Art.
