

Special delivery: Two former Ida Grove residents are doing their part to build good relations with the citizens of Iraq. Ian Thornhill (far left), a Lieutenant Commander in the Navy Reserve JAG Corp, and Pat Pfaltzgraff (far right), an active duty Major in the Air Force JAG Corp, recently delivered Girl Scout cookies to an Iraqi family as part of the effort to develop goodwill between the Iraqis and the United States military. (Photo submitted)